

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

South Louisiana Bank Welcomes Rachel Gautreaux as Branch Manager of Bayou Blue Branch

Bayou Blue, LA — South Louisiana Bank is proud to announce the appointment of Rachel Gautreaux as the new Branch Manager of its Bayou Blue Branch. A lifelong resident of Galliano, Louisiana, Rachel brings both professional expertise and a deep commitment to the local community she proudly calls home.

At South Louisiana Bank, community banking means more than financial services, it means being present, involved, and invested in the people and places we serve. Our team members can be found throughout the community, supporting local schools and churches, volunteering at community events, and participating in civic activities. Our customers are not just customers; they are our friends, family, and neighbors.

Rachel began her banking career in 2015 as a Customer Service Representative in new accounts, where she quickly earned a reputation for exceptional customer care, professionalism, and a genuine passion for helping others. Over the years, she has become a trusted and familiar face to many in the community.

In her new role as Branch Manager, Rachel looks forward to continuing the friendly, customer-first service South Louisiana Bank is known for. She is also eager to assist customers with personal and business lending needs, helping them find the right financial solutions to achieve their goals.

South Louisiana Bank invites the community to stop by the Bayou Blue Branch and join us in welcoming Rachel to her new position.
