Terrebonne General | Mary Bird Perkins Cancer Center Welcomes New Foundation Philanthropy Coordinator

Terrebonne General | Mary Bird Perkins Cancer Center welcomes Jacy Boudreaux as the new Foundation Philanthropy Coordinator. In this role, she will lead philanthropic initiatives, develop fundraising strategies, and cultivate donor relationships, focusing on the Cancer Center and our local cancer patients.

Jacy brings extensive experience in relationship building, event planning, legal advocacy, and strategic partnerships. Previously serving as Domestic Violence Program Director at The Haven, Inc., she provided strategic leadership while coordinating grant writing, fundraising, donor relations, and community engagement. She also played a key role in the success of major fundraising initiatives through meaningful donor engagement, impactful event planning, and the development of strong community partnerships.

Jacy received her Associate of Science in Criminal Justice from Fletcher Technical Community College and then went on to receive her Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from McNeese State University. She also received her Paralegal Certification from Louisiana State University Online and Continuing Education.

She looks forward to fostering philanthropic partnerships and making a positive impact on the lives of patients and families.

The Cancer Center offers comprehensive, patient-focused cancer services. With a combination of exceptional resources and highly experienced and compassionate physicians and staff, patients receive the highest quality cancer care available right here at home.

For more information about the Cancer Center's development program, contact (985) 873-4635.
